

Jiffies Global Trading Ltd. is trading as Hands-on Advocacy.

Hands-on Advocacy specializes in Law and Administration.

Our professional relationship with you as client is based on mutual respect and confidentiality.

Our Personal Advocate upholds the utmost privacy when dealing and handling your affairs.

You can rest assured that any information you give us will be treated and kept strictly confidential.

We also refer to our Privacy Statement, which is part of our Services Agreement with you.

We would like to point out that any legal or administrative advice given to you is made with your best interest at heart.

Nonetheless, this advice is our professional opinion and should not - under any circumstances - be substituted for your own sound judgment or decision.

We operate under your instructions and/or written authorization only.

You remain in control and we act on your behalf or together with you.

Our Personal Advocate will work with you in partnership and for your benefit only.

Due to the above, we can not be held liable for any adverse outcomes or results through our dealings on your behalf or with you.

You will remain solely responsible for the decisions made by you and the actions of our Personal Advocate on your behalf.

Any costs following these liabilities are for your account only.

In the event that we are charged for any such management of your affairs, we will pass on these costs to you for payment.

We look forward to working with you in a successful and beneficial relationship.
